

Dr. Massimo Villa obtained the Diploma in Medicine and Surgery at the University of Rome, La Sapienza in 1996. Specialized in Pediatric Surgery at the University of Rome Tor Vergata (2001) and Specialized in General Surgery at the University of Rome Campus Biomedico(2015).

Dr. Villa Obtained the Master (II Level) in Minimally-Invasive Surgery from the University of Rome La Sapienza in 2012.

Surgical Research Fellow at Bambino Gesù Paediatric Hospital IRCCS, from 2002 to 2004 carrying out studies and research on Genetic Risks and on predictive factors of reflux nephropathy and the treatment of varicocele in paediatric age.

Visiting Fellow in Pediatric Urology at the University Hospital of Southampton (2001).

Assistant Professor at the University of Rome Tor Vergata with Clinical Role at the University Hospital Tor Vergata into the Operative Unit of Emergency Surgery (DEA).

Teacher of Surgical Semeiology at within the Medicine and Surgery School Course at the University Hospital Tor Vergata.

Coordinator and Instructor for the Acute and Emergency Medicine Course at the CCL Nursing Course (University of Rome Tor Vergata).

Pediatric Surgery Teacher at the School of Obstetrics and at the School of Cardiovascular Physiopathology and Cardiovascular Perfusion Techniques of the University of Rome Tor Vergata.

Pediatric Surgery Teacher at the School of Medicine and Surgery of the University Nostra Signora del Buon Consiglio Tirana, Albania.

Areas of Interest:

Potentials and limits of minimally-invasive surgery;

Biomaterial role in wound care;

Author and CO-Authos of numerous scientific publications on International Peer Review Magazines and of Chapters of Scientific Books.